

CARBON BLACK E153

Origin: Carbon Black is a black colour produced through the burning of plant material such as Coconut Shells and Peat.

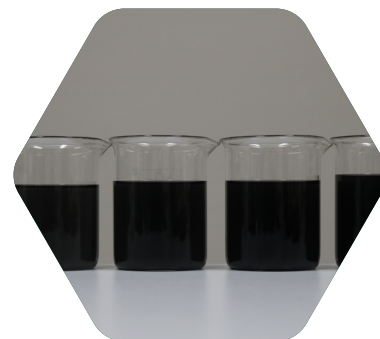

Profile: For more intense, darker shades of brown.

Formats: Available as a liquid, paste or powders.

Stability: Carbon Black is extremely heat and lightstable.

Applications:

Confectionery
Toothpaste
Ice Cream
Beverages
Bakery
Seasonings

Technical Support

Talk to our team about the options available and our recommendations which would be given according to the application. Accelerated stability testing can also be undertaken in our laboratories to assist our partners.